

Term	Topic(s)	Assessed work	Additional details
1 a 7 weeks 42 lessons	Families and Households Defining the family in relation to society Role of the Nuclear Family; Functionalism, Marxism, Feminism and the New Right Education Theories on education; Functionalist, Marxist, New Right, Fordism, Post-Fordism Statistics in education	Exam style questions on theories of the family and theories of education	Look to the library for a range of resources. You may want to subscribe to Sociology Review
1b 7 weeks 42 lessons	Families and Households Role of the family Postmodernism Social Policy, Marriage patterns , Divorce Patterns Children and family Social theory of family diversity Education Class differences in education; cultural deprivation, material deprivation and cultural capital	Exam style questions on theories of the family and theories of education	Students are actively told to engage in keeping up to date with current affairs. Watch the news, subscribe to an online news paper or follow social commentators on twitter, etc.
2a 7 weeks 42 lessons	Families and Households Gender Roles and power Gender roles domestic labour Gender roles Comparing all perspectives on family diversity Historical development of Childhood Changes in the status of childhood Toxic Childhood Education Gender differences in education; role models, subject choices, self-fulfilling prophecy, etc.	Exam style questions on gender roles and theories of education in relation to gender differences	Students can also look online and on things like bbc iplayer for documentaries and relevant films
2b 5 weeks 35 lessons	Research Methods Positivism and interpretivism, Primary research methods - experiments Sampling and Questionnaires Structured and unstructured interviews Types of observation Education Ethnic differences in education; racism, labelling, etc	Exam style questions on research methods and theories of education in relation to ethnic differences	Students will be encouraged to begin their revision for the exams as early as possible. Check out Tutor2U
3a 5 weeks 35 lessons	Research Methods Secondary research methods Official statistics and Historical documents Historical documents Families and Households and Methods Education The role and purpose of education Social Policy and education	13 th June -Exam Week Students will complete question on Families and Households and Education	Making timelines, revision flash cards, essay plans and having study group sessions would aid their revision
3b 7 weeks 42 lessons	The Media What is the media? Differences between traditional and new media? Who owns the media? How reliable is the media? Education Education and research methods	Exam style questions on research methods	Teachers can direct students to an appropriate revision guide to aid them in their studies

